Intersession lets you earn three credits in three weeks

Registration has just opened for Intersession, which lets you take an online course Aug. 1–23, between summer and fall semesters. The course space opens on June 19, so if you register early, you can start early and reduce the stress. Ten courses are being offered, and topics range from digital diversity to media and society, from jazz to rock to foreign films. Details are on the Intersession website.

Global Connections activities

Wine & Dine Part 2: Food From The Heart
Today, March 3, at 6 p.m.
Watch the video preview
Patrick Merry, owner of Merry Cellars Winery, will discuss food and wine pairings, and tasting and etiquette. He'll also give you an inside look at the process of wine production. Students who participate in the chat area will be entered into a drawing for a $100 Merry Cellars gift certificate.
Wine & Dine Part 2: Food From The Heart

International Women’s Day speaker
March 4 at 4 p.m.
WSU International Women’s Day keynote speaker Mpule Kwelagobe, a Botswana native and the first Miss Universe from Africa, will discuss gender issues and social justice in Africa.
The Multiplier Effects of Investing in Women

Summer registration opens this week

When you can register for summer courses depends on your status. Here’s a breakdown:

- Monday, March 2 – Graduate students, veterans
- Tuesday, March 3 – Seniors (more than 90 credits), students seeking a second degree (post-bacc)
- Wednesday, March 4 – Juniors
- Thursday, March 5 – Sophomores
- Friday, March 6 – Freshmen, non-degree seeking, all newly admitted students

News briefs

Election season begins. Fourteen candidates are competing for seats on the ASWSU Global student government. Check out their bios and online chat hours.
Global Connections and the WSU Alumni Association are holding an online career fair with employers that include Starbucks, GEICO, Peace Corps, Sequoyah Electric, Enterprise, Oberto, Lynden Door, Symetra Financial, and Great Floors.

Online career fair

Travel Abroad
March 9 at 6 p.m.
Watch the video preview
Learn how to have a rewarding time, and avoid common pitfalls, during your international travel experience. Topics include research, packing, passport information, navigating airports, and top five tips for travel success. (Not planning an international trip? Maybe you will be after watching a related webinar on international scholarships. That’s April 7 at 6 p.m. More information coming shortly.)

Travel Abroad

In case you missed it. Videos of recent events include:

- Excelling in Excel Basics
- Excelling in Excel Advanced
- Wine and Dine Part 1
- Fitness in a Flash
- Global Case Competition reveal

Sync your calendar

Friday, March 6. Deadline to apply for a May 2015 undergraduate degree without a late fee.

Friday, March 6. Deadline to apply for a May 2015 graduate degree or certificate without a late fee.

Sunday, March 15. Deadline to apply for ASWSU Global summer scholarship.

Monday, March 16. Zzusis shopping carts open for fall.

Friday, March 20. Spring vacation ends.

Monday, April 13. Priority registration begins for fall.

Full events and activities calendar

Seattle T-Bird joins Global Campus. Tyler Alos played 201 games before becoming an assistant coach in 2012. Story here.

22 Global Campus students compete. This year’s Case Competition has drawn more than 120 applicants, including 22 Global Campus students. The entrants are divided into teams of four to six, and each team competes to solve an international problem. This year’s issue is disposal of plastic waste in Brazil.

Full academic calendar