GO FOR THE GOLD

CRIMSON AND GRAY VIRTUAL 5K

A cougar can sprint up to 50 mph. But, unless one is chasing you, you don't need to go nearly that fast to participate in ASWSU Global and Global Connections' Crimson and Gray Virtual 5K run from March 11-19.

You have one week to participate in this free 5K. Go at your own pace and preferred route: on a treadmill, in a park, on the beach—wherever you are! After you complete the 5K, send a photo of yourself decked out in Cougar gear and sporting your race bib to global.connections@wsu.edu. The first 17 students who complete this year's 5K will earn a free medal. Sign up using the link below and print your Virtual 5K Race Bib before you begin.

COMMON READING

WRITING MEMOIR

At 4 p.m. on March 21, WSU professors and authors Debbie Lee and Ray Sun will talk about the genre of memoir and how they serve to give a personal voice to important global issues. Lee will share from a memoir she is writing that links personal challenges to her first-hand encounter with the effects of global warming in the Arctic. Sun will share how memoirs provide unique and accessible sources that enable us to

GUEST LECTURE

BURTENSHAW LECTURE

At 2 p.m. on March 24, nine hotel and hospitality industry professionals and graduates of WSU'S School of Hospitality Business Management will share their expertise during the annual livestreamed Burtenshaw Distinguished Lecture. These alum will be among the first inductees into the SHBM Hall of Fame and will share experiences that will help future HBM grads be successful in

WORKSHOP

CAMPUS CONNECT: SUICIDE PREVENTION TRAINING

This 2-hour suicide prevention training program, livestreamed at 5 p.m. on March 22, provides participants with knowledge of suicide facts, awareness of risks and warning signs, and communication skills to respond to someone in crisis. Framed around preventing college student suicide, the topics and skills discussed during this interactive grasp the impact of war and genocide on societies, cultures, and individuals.

One Global Campus student who participates in the chatbox during this livestreamed event will win this year's Common Reading book, "I am Malala."

▶ ENTER FOR A CHANCE TO WIN $100

Freshmen and seniors, be sure to complete the National Survey for Student Engagement (NSSE) to help WSU understand how best to serve students with its policy, curriculum, and resources. The survey takes about 15 minutes, and students who complete the survey will be entered into a drawing to win one of several $100 gift cards. We need your help to understand how WSU can improve the student experience!
