CAREER HELP

LAUNCH YOUR CAREER, PROFESSIONALLY

Landing a new job after you complete your degree isn't just about having a polished resume; you'll also have to demonstrate professionalism to get a job and to keep your job. So the question is: Do you know all of what "professionalism" encompasses? During this live streamed workshop at 5:30 p.m. this Thursday, Dec. 1, Leanne Ralstin of the Carson College of Business will show students the professional skills they need to successfully launch into their careers after college.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

HOLIDAY GIVING PROJECTS

Leave the gift cards at the store this holiday season, and instead give a gift of service. By participating in the WSU Center for Civic Engagement's (CCE) Service Giving Projects between Dec. 3 and Dec. 11, you will receive a certificate stating that you have participated in a community service project in honor of the gift recipient. This is a great way to give a unique and meaningful gift to your loved ones while supporting your local community organizations.
